Aspirant
Consulting Group

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

FIRST STATE FORCE REVIEW

PRACTICE / PERSPECTIVE / BETTER DECISIONS

USE OF FORCE REVIEW

In the Body-Worn Camera Era

Video Evidence and Human Performance

ONE-DAY COURSE

HOSTED BY BUCKS COUNTY PUBLIC SAFETY TRAINING CENTER

The camera gives you evidence.
It does not give you the officer's experience.

FOR SUPERVISORS, COMMAND STAFF, AND FORCE REVIEWERS.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

1. Review video evidence.
   Frame rate, compression, camera angle
2. Account for human performance.
   Attention, perception, stress, memory
3. Recognize review bias.
   Hindsight and confirmation bias
4. Weigh the complete evidence.
   Footage, reports, statements, policy
5. Explain your conclusions.
   Document defensible findings

FORCE REVIEW PRACTITIONERS

Lt. Matthew Botterbusch
Developed Delaware's first full-time Force Review and Analysis Unit

Sgt. Sean Ryan
Reviews hundreds of use-of-force incidents a year

John String
Co-founder, Aspirant Consulting Group

DATE
Thursday, February 18, 2027
8:30 AM to 4:30 PM

LOCATION
Bucks County Public Safety Training Center
1760 South Easton Road
Doylestown, PA 18901

$295
PER PARTICIPANT

SCAN TO REGISTER