Aspirant Consulting Group
PRACTITIONER-LED TRAINING

HOSTED BY MONTGOMERY COUNTY DPS

ONE-DAY SUPERVISION COURSE

Before The Crisis: Supervising At-Risk Employees

Recognize the warning signs. Act early. Maintain accountability.

COURSE OVERVIEW

This course prepares supervisors to recognize and respond to employees whose performance, behavior, or wellness may be deteriorating before the situation becomes a crisis. Participants learn how to identify warning signs, initiate appropriate conversations, document concerns, coordinate available resources, and maintain accountability throughout the process.

Designed for law enforcement supervisors

01 Identifying at-risk indicators

02 Intervention strategies and supervisory response

03 Balancing support and accountability

04 Documentation and risk management

DATE
Tuesday, March 16, 2027

TIME
8:00 AM to 4:00 PM

LOCATION
Montgomery County DPS
Public Safety Training Campus
1175 Conshohocken Road
Conshohocken, PA 19428

TUITION
$295 per student

YOUR INSTRUCTOR

Heidi Ramsey

Instructor, FBI National Academy

Heidi Ramsey is a retired member of the Ohio State Highway Patrol with 23 years of service, where she held assignments in training, labor relations, legal services, and human resources. She developed multiple leadership and wellness programs, including SIGNAL and the Public Safety Leadership Academy. She now instructs law enforcement executives at the FBI National Academy on leadership and personnel management.

SCAN TO REGISTER

Reserve your seat today. Seats are limited.

Doing nothing is not an option.

aspirantllc.com/training

info@aspirantllc.com
610-348-8082