

Mastering Search & Seizure: Vehicle Stops and Beyond

Instructed by Dan Foster

Hosted By: South Fork Police Department

The era of relying on “we’ve always done it that way” is over. In today’s climate, law enforcement professionals must be confident in their understanding of what the courts have deemed lawful and constitutional. This course, Mastering Search & Seizure: Vehicle Stops and Beyond, equips officers with the knowledge and skills to apply case law effectively in the field—ensuring their actions are not only effective but also defensible.

Who Should Attend

This class is ideal for every rank and position within a police department—patrol officers, detectives, supervisors, and administrators alike. It’s especially valuable for:

- Proactive officers who want to conduct complete, legally sound traffic stops
- Criminal interdiction officers seeking to enhance their ability to develop prosecutable cases
- Officers preparing for promotion and looking to strengthen their legal foundation
- Any law enforcement professional who wants to ensure their work stands up under the toughest courtroom scrutiny
