COMMUNICATION

A POSITIVE APPROACH

In this 8-hour course, public safety staff will understand that everyone faces the challenges of staying positive while training others, and when not training the importance of retaining a positive outlook with staff and trainees. It will provide a deeper understanding of crucial communication components, enhance leadership skills, and improve the trainee and trainer relationship. It will also introduce concepts of communication transparency, active listening, communication “noise”, self-awareness and stress management for both the trainer and trainee.
