

ROWAN-CABARRUS COMMUNITY COLLEGE, CRIMINAL JUSTICE DEPARTMENT IN PARTNERSHIP WITH ATLANTA-CAROLINAS HIDTA PRESENTS:

COMPREHENSIVE ROADSIDE INTERDICTION

September 9-13, 2024

8:00-5:00

ROWAN-CABARRUS COMMUNITY COLLEGE PUBLIC SAFETY
BUILDING, SALISBURY NC

This 42-hour course of instruction covers every facet of vehicle criminal interdiction by combining classroom and practical hands on training. TOPICS INCLUDE: Introduction to the crime problem, Change of behavior, Roadside interview, Identifying physical indicators, Search & seizure, Case law, Criminal trends, N.C narcotic trends, Effective vehicle search techniques, Identifying concealment locations, Hidden compartment displays, Vehicle search exercises to identify natural & electronically accessed concealments

Instructors: FOG LINE TRAINING

Enrollment in this course is limited to 35 students and is free to all in-state sworn law enforcement officers. Out of state students must pay a registration fee and should consult with the school coordinator.

Two step registration process:

Step 1: You must register online through RCCC by e-mailing letrain@rccc.edu or by calling 704-216-3745

Step 2: You will register with HIDTA on the first day of class