TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

Become the supervisor your officers respect, your peers rely on, and your organization trusts.

Garfield, NJ

January 25-28, 2027

Step into leadership with confidence. This four-day intensive program is designed for newly promoted or aspiring supervisors who want to master the transition from peer to leader. Participants will explore the real-world responsibilities of front-line supervision, including communication strategies, motivation and discipline, ethical decision-making, performance evaluations, and building a cohesive team culture.

Led by experienced command-level instructors with decades of field and administrative expertise, this course blends practical exercises, interactive discussions, and case-based scenarios that mirror the challenges of modern policing. Attendees will leave equipped with the tools, mindset, and confidence to lead effectively, manage performance, and enhance team productivity.

POST APPROVED in many states, it is second to none in first-line supervision and leadership training. Invest in your people, your agency, and your future.
