Lead the Line: Performance Driven Leadership for First-Line Supervisors

Prepare your next generation of leaders with this 4-day, reality-based program built to move beyond “check the box” training. First-line supervisors face challenges that demand more than theory—this course ensures they are ready to lead with confidence and practical skills. POST certified in many states, it is second to none in first-line supervision and leadership training. Invest in your people, your agency, and your future.
